MARCH 6

Toronto's own Nobu will be located on Mercer Street and will feature a large restaurant with a bar lounge, outdoor seating, and private dining rooms. The restaurant will be located inside the upcoming Nobu Residences Toronto, two 49-story condominium towers that will feature a Zen Garden and a state of the art fitness centre. The residences will include a hotel as well as condos for sale.

Nobu will be working with the Madison Group in order to bring the project to life. Though there's no word on an expected opening date, a registry for the residences is open here.
